

Mercola Chief Business Officer Earns 2021 Business Observer 40 Under 40 Distinction

Ryan Boland recognized for his professional achievements and entrepreneurial spirit

CAPE CORAL, Fla. (Oct. 21, 2021) – Ryan Boland, chief business officer at Mercola Market, was recently recognized in the Business Observer's 40 Under 40, a special list of young business leaders, from Tampa to Naples, who exemplify the entrepreneurial spirit and shine the brightest amongst their peers.

Originally from New York, Boland oversees the operations management of Mercola Market and the strategic planning within the five dynamic teams he leads, focusing on the company's mission regarding product innovation, sustainability and transparency. With a legacy rooted in regenerative agriculture, Mercola is dedicated to providing premium natural health products made with clean ingredients to help customers take control of their health.

Boland first began his career in the food and restaurant industry selling ingredients to dining establishments but later transitioned to natural health formulations, working for a supplement manufacturer. A long-time athlete, he serves as a head coach for the South Fort Myers Youth Baseball League, using the skills he's developed as a professional to mentor his players to become determined, honorable individuals on and off the field.
