Mercola.com celebrates 20 years of helping people take control of their health

Hoffman Estates, IL, July 31, 2017 – For the last two decades, Dr. Joseph Mercola has proudly stood for the people's overall well-being and helped to create a healthier, more informed world. In a time where the healthcare industry appears to be in a continuously unstable state, Dr. Mercola has been steadfast in his approach to providing the public with the most current, cutting edge information to make wise, sound decisions, arming and encouraging them to be proactive regarding their health.

The company he founded 20 years ago, Dr. Mercola Premium Products, offers only products that are extensively researched, developed and vetted by himself and his team, based on decades of personal scientific findings, design and innovative formulas for top performance. All products feature unique, effective technologies that have long lasting benefits.

For 20 years strong, Mercola.com has taken the utmost care to provide premium products for all members of the family, no matter what age, pets included. His site offers premium supplements, personal care items, wholesome food and snacks, essential oils, kitchenware, pet necessities, fitness supplies, and more. With over 500 products to choose from, Mercola.com has all the essentials for anyone to lead a healthy, vibrant life.

“My motivation, whether you are a member of the Mercola.com community or have just heard about me for the first time, is to make you as healthy as you can possibly be,” Mercola said. “When I offer or recommend products, I do so because I have actively researched them and find they are the best in that category for your health. I ignore substandard products that are not directly pertinent to your well-being, regardless of any potential financial upside.”

Being a strong social advocate, Mercola donates a portion of the profits generated from the sale of all products towards health activism and organizations his company has supported since day one.

To celebrate the 20th anniversary, shop.mercola.com will be offering special discounts the week of August 7 through August 14.
