New Ceramic Knives Offer Superior Performance and Safety

Hoffman Estates, IL (PRWEB) December 15, 2014 – Move over stainless steel -- you've met your match! Ceramic knives are the newest addition to Mercola.com for their many attractive benefits over other options – mainly, classic stainless steel.

This 10-piece Ceramic Knife Set comes with a five-year warranty. The knives hold their edge and stay sharp longer than traditional stainless steel. They also won't rust, stain, or produce a metallic taste, and are incredibly durable, yet light in weight.

"These ceramic knives are an outstanding addition to our non-toxic kitchenware selection," said Dr. Joseph Mercola, founder of the world's #1 natural health site. "I know people who love to cook will enjoy these knives' ease of use and versatility."

Dr. Mercola's Ceramic Knives come in a custom sheath for easy storage and convenience. Mercola.com stocks other non-toxic kitchen products including their signature ceramic cookware. Learn more about these and other products at products.mercola.com.
