Long-awaited silver supplement contains true colloidal silver.

Hoffman Estates, IL (PRWEB) January 30, 2015 – For thousands of years, people have used silver. Now, Mercola.com has introduced a proprietary colloidal silver formula called Silver Solution.

Unlike other formulas, Mercola's silver contains bioactive true colloidal silver with the ultimate purity and refinement. It's also free from salts, proteins, stabilizers, and oxidizing compounds that can potentially contaminate the ingredients.

"While there are some misconceptions about silver, it's due to inferior products," said Dr. Mercola. "My Silver Solution is of the highest-quality in regards to particle concentration, dispersion, color, and purity."

Silver Solution is available in three different delivery methods: dropper, mist spray, and vertical sprayer.
