

Mercola Market to Host New Comedy Nights Starting in May

Mid-Cape will end its weekly Farmer's Market and offer events for the summer

CAPE CORAL, Fla. (April 22, 2022) – A natural health retail store and community hub in Cape Coral, Mercola Market & Café will now host a new series of comedy nights, starting Saturday, May 28.

Organized by ComiCure, this adult-only (21 years and older) event will begin with a happy hour at 6 p.m. followed by the live entertainment at 7 p.m., which will feature two comedians who have appeared on TMZ, MTV, The Howard Stern Show and more. Located at 125 SW 3rd Place in Cape Coral, the Market will also be providing food for the evening to include healthy wraps, grilled chicken sandwiches and side options.

“As our weekly Mid-Cape Farmer’s Market comes to an end on May 1, we wanted to broaden our list of events to include something the Cape doesn’t see a lot of – and that’s comedy,” says Patrick Rossi, Campus Operations Manager of Mercola Market. “Laughter is something we can never get enough of, and this unique event offers the perfect night out for couples or friends looking to grab a bite and be entertained all in one place.”

Tickets for the show are $30 per person, including food, and can be purchased directly at midcapecomedynight.eventbrite.com. Ticket prices will increase $10 on the day of the event. Seating is first come, first serve.
