

NHP Announces New CEO

CAPE CORAL, Fla. (March. 25, 2024) – Natural Health Partners, LLC (NHP) is pleased to announce the appointment of Laura Berry as Chief Executive Officer. As CEO, Berry will lead the full range of the Mercola brands, including Dr. Mercola[®], Solspring[®], Bark & Whiskers[™], Ola Botanicals[®] and others.

Before joining NHP, Berry was a practicing attorney for two-plus decades. She is an innovator in the socially responsible business sector, creating the first benefit corporation in 2010, and speaking nationally and internationally on this powerful movement.

“I am excited to join the NHP team to execute the vision of its pioneering founder, Dr. Joseph Mercola. The amazing teams in Florida and Manila have laser-sharp focus on the company’s core business and are eager to grow its presence across new markets with an expanded mission.”

“Laura’s background gives us the precise scope of vision, enthusiasm, and broad competence necessary to lead our company’s future. I have every confidence in her experience, perspective, and insight to move Mercola and our companies into this next phase of bringing health to millions of people,” said Dr. Mercola.
